The series of soft-cover, pocket-sized books entitled "Direct Diagnosis in Radiology" currently contains 10 titles (ie, separate books). There are 4 of these that are germane to neuroradiology. Brain Imaging (Sartor, et al), Spine Imaging (Imhof, et al), Head and Neck Imaging (Moedder, et al), and Vascular Imaging (Wolf, et al). In addition, this series of books from Thieme includes separate volumes on Musculoskeletal Imaging (Reiser, et al), Urogenital Imaging (Hamm, et al), Pediatric Imaging (Staatz, et al), Cardiac Imaging (Clausen, et al), Breast Imaging (Fischer, et al), and Gastrointestinal Imaging (Brambs). The 4 books relative to neuroradiology have been reviewed and appear on the AJNR Website under "Books Briefly Noted". The format is the same in all the volumes with easy-to-read bullet points and pertinent images on the most commonly encountered entities in each area. A departmental library would be served well by having this series of books readily available to trainees and staff.
